Jorge Santos, from FCUSBC, also enters for Superior Performance. He has nineteen 800 series and twenty-nine 300 games. In his local he won a doubles title, was named to the All Star Team 4 times and Bowler of the Year twice.

Greater Danbury USBC News

Various CTUSBC local associations have events and news to share.

Greater Danbury inducted 4 bowlers into its local Hall of Fame on March 18th, at its Annual Hall of Fame and Scholarship Breakfast at the Ethan Allen Inn in Danbury. Three members went in for Superior Bowling Ability, Joseph Ciatto, Patrick James, and Tracy Lucas. Stephanie Gallo entered for Meritorious Service. Attending this event, and giving a bowling exhibition at Brookfield Lanes following the breakfast were professional bowlers, Nelson "Bo" Burton, Walter Ray Williams, Jr. and Johnny Petraglia. They bowled with Danbury's youth bowlers, the newly installed Hall of Fame members and others who qualified via a tournament charity event that supports the local Hospice in the Greater Danbury USBC area.

Greater Danbury recently held two tournaments open to all USBC bowlers. On Jan. 21st, their 2012 Queen's and Princess event was held at Brookfield Lanes. Queen's results were: 1st-Celina Broderick, 2nd-Jessica Meola, and 3rd-Janelle Pelletier. Princess winners include: 1st-Samantha Mowmn, 2nd-Jacqueline Dean, 3rd-Annie Gallant, and 4th-Skyler Brown. On Jan. 22nd at Lore's Lanes in New Milford, the 2012 Singles Scratch Tournament was held and won by Brian Youngman who was 3rd in the top 4 stepladder finals. Others in the finals and their seed were 1st-Aaron Graves, 2nd-Justin Bychowski, and 4th-Kevin Ryan.

Thanks to Cindy Ciatto for all the Danbury news! If your local has news, send it to marshagilbert@snet.net.
