

SARAH SCHECHTER

Ms. Schechter hails from Danbury, CT and is the winner of the CT State USBC Association scholarship. An eligible student must be a child of a mother, father, grandmother, grandfather of a certified bowler. Also, a candidate can be a certified bowler but it is not a requirement for this scholarship. Sarah's dad is a certified league bowler.

Sarah is a student at Danbury High School and is also Valedictorian of her class of 634 students. She will be attending the University of Connecticut with a major in Environmental Science and Natural Resources focusing on Sustainability. Her future aspirations include a career in Environmental Activism as well as joining the Peace Corps.

While at Danbury, Sarah has been a member of the National Honor Society and the National Social Studies Honor Society. She is also a varsity athlete in 3 sports: cross country and indoor and outdoor track. She was recently honored as being the CIAC Scholar Athlete which is an award given to one female and male athlete in their senior year who excels in both academic and athletic endeavors. She has been captain of both the cross country and track teams.

Outside of school, Sarah has been a youth volunteer in her community and church. She is a member of her church choir as well as the Danbury Chorus. Sarah was an involved member of cleaning up Lake Candlewood and promoting environmental awareness in her community.

The CT State USBC Association congratulates Sarah for her academic achievement and wishes her the best for the future.
