

YARISEL SANTOS

Ms. Santos hails from Meriden, CT and is the winner of the CWBA scholarship. This was money set aside from the CT Women's Bowling Association when it merged into the CT State USBC Association. An eligible student must be the child of a mother or grandmother of a certified female bowler. Yarisel's mother is a league bowler at Wallingford Bowl.

Yarisel is a student at Orville Platt High School in Meriden. Last year's scholar was also a student from Orville Platt High School. She will be attending the University of New Haven majoring in forensic science. Her plans after college graduation are to enlist in the United States Air Force to pursue a doctorate degree. While at Platt, Yarisel earned high honors and academic awards which includes being a member of the National Honor Society. She is also a member of the Chemistry Club, Mindful Mondays and Project Excel. She earned a State of Connecticut citation from the Meriden Legislative Delegation as well as a Perfect Attendance Award.

Outside of school, she is a member of the Meriden Police Cadets and the Civil Air Patrol. Her interests include drawing, painting, sewing, crocheting, reading, mental puzzle games, traveling, meditation and cooking.

The CT State USBC Association congratulates Yarisel for her academic achievement and wishes her the best for the future.
